

HWH-611 Vital Statistics Certificate of Divorce

State law requires that a completed Certificate of Divorce be prepared and submitted with any new petition or complaint for divorce. The Certificate of Divorce is furnished to the clerk of the court by the State Registrar. It is a preprinted form that can only be obtained from a Court Assistance Officer or directly from the court clerk. A divorce cannot be finalized unless the clerk is provided this completed form.